Zuzga stated those affected by the project can and some have taken advantage of this.

D. Police Department Update – Chief Olney reported that Anthony Estrada has graduated and is filling a part time police position in the department. Olney stated that the issues with 911 radios will diminish a little as the department will have three new consoles that will be compatible with whatever radio system they choose. Chief Olney discussed the issue in the park with a resident that had a toy gun with the orange tip removed. Quincy Police Department assisted with the hot boat races.

8. NEW BUSINESS

A. Public Safety Work Group presentation – Zuzga discussed information that was presented to the council regarding what a millage would cover for both the police and fire departments. This would be a millage that the Township would enforce, not the Village.
